Executive Director's Message

Dear Friends of Green Generations,

This year, 2017, marks the fifth year of providing services throughout New York City! We celebrate this milestone as a year full of continued growth as well as one of reflection so we can take inventory of what we are doing well while noticing areas where can continue to improve and best serve our school communities.

This school year, Green Generations provided in-school and after-school programming to over 500 children from second through twelfth grade in three NYC boroughs.

With immense gratitude, I am excited to announce the continuation of the John J. Ruby School Partnership Award, which is a generous donation from The Ruby Family to memorialize their father and provide after-school funding for a school partnership: P.S. 191 in Manhattan, New York.

Additionally, we are very grateful to Nature's Path for donations 1800 bars (300 boxes) of their EnviroKidz Peanut-Free bars. This very generous in-kind donation helped us provide healthy and organic snacks to our after-school children. We also received a generous gift card donation from Fairway in Brooklyn to help us provide healthy and in-season snacks.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and myself, we thank you for your continued support that allows Green Generations to thrive. We look forward to celebrating future successes.

With a very grateful heart,

Adrienne Heim
